Wednesday 4th

Widow Eliza Sarah Mackerell 50 Underwood St. re the Banns of Saml Thos. Mackerell, Widower & Eliza Sarah Mackerell, Widow. - Mrs Mackerell called to know if she cd be married next Sunday afternoon after third publication of Banns. - On inquiry I find that Mr Mackerell moved out of the Parish of S. Matthew - Bethnal Green last Friday. This change of residence to Commercial Rd during the publication of Banns will, I presume, prevent his being married in the Parish Church of Bethnal Green. - On inquiry I find also that the woman lives in the Parish of Mile End, New Town, & that her Banns ~~were~~ have not been put up in the Church of that Parish. - On these grounds I told her that the marriage cd not take place here. = Mr Mackerell changed his residence in order to avoid friends' congratulations. Further inquiry shows that the late Mr Mackerell & the present Mr Mackerell were first cousins - brothers' children. The question. Can a woman marry her deceased husband's first cousin? I was disposed to answer in the affirmative.
