Ann Briarley; Woodham; Ward; Dipple; Wheeler; Lord; Butler; Richardson.- Why is noon chosen for detention in preference to order from the Coroner authorising the closing of the coffin prior to its contents being viewed by the jury. - On questioning Mr West, I learned that if the woman's husband (her second venture) had acted promptly, the inquest might have been held last Saturday. - No fault attaches to the Coroner's officials. The woman had been ailing for some time, & had been attended by the parish doctor. As a strange doctor was called in towards the end, & as he knew nothing of the history of the case, he refused to certify cause of death. - Hence the inquest. Mr Connor has been a soldier, & after viewing his mother's remains was so affected by the sight, that he invoked Mr Gosheron's aid & demolished a quartern of rum. - Hence his rum request.

not certify according to the terms of the Certificate even if it had been left open. - She waxed indignant, & said she wd. take them elsewhere.

I have written the following letter to the Secy of the Lon. Hosp. in the Rector's name.

The Parish Church Bethnal Green
25 Nov. 1891

Sir,

A woman named Ann Crease residing at 19 Cheshire St. Bethnal Green has this day presented to me two forms (colour green) of admission to "Mrs Gladstone's free Convalescent Home for the Poor"; which forms have been already filled in, & "The Certificate of Clergyman or other Minister of Religion, or Secy of any Branch of the C.O.S." is signed "Thomas Hornsby"; the said signature being apparently written by a woman. She says her children are lying in your Hospital suffering from typhoid fever, & that the forms were handed to her by Nurse Curry, & that the said nurse had requested her to take them to a clergyman for his signature, & to bring them back on Friday. - I told the woman there was nothing left for me to sign, & further that as I did not know her nor her children, I cd. not sign even if the Certificates had been left open. She waxed wroth, & left saying she wd. take them elsewhere. - I think that you as Secy of the Lon. Hosp. ought to be made aware of this, as I cannot understand why we clergy sd. be asked to sign something that has been already signed at the Hosp. - I tried to explain to the woman that all that was now required (apparently) was to present the forms to the Executive Committee on Monday, but my labour of love was rendered useless by reason of her indignation. I am, Sir, Your obedient servant,

Jas. J. Woodroffe. Curate.
Septimus Hansard
Rector, & Governor of the Lon. Hosp.

Thursday 26th. - Edward Ernest Palmer 31 Church Row re his paper (See P. 153) Said he had brought it to Rev. Rust & this clergyman had refused to sign because Palmer did not live in his parish. - It is said that the workingman dislikes the parson. - I don't wonder at it, seeing that nine-tenths of the cloth are coated with the rust of stupidity & narrow-minded folly.

Mrs Ellen Clarkson 47 Squirries St. re Mary Baker's gift.

Friday 27th. Signed one Certificate. Bp. of London's Visitation.

London Hospital reply to my letter on re Crease. Page 155.

Samaritan Society, London Hosp. E.
Nov. 26. 1891

Dear Sir, In reply to yours of the 25th inst. to the House Governor, he desires me to say that he is extremely sorry that you sd. have been troubled with the letters of recom. to Mrs Gladstone's home by a woman named Crease, as it was entirely a mistake on the part of one of our Nurses, who is just leaving. — The facts of the case are these, that Mrs Gladstone's Committee in connection with my own, arranged some 12 months since that no patient can be sent down to Woodford without the signature of some minister or member of the C.O.S. who knows them, that signature to a great extent ensures the respectability of the Patient, but this does not apply to children as I generally sign that Certificate myself.

Personally I am sorry you sd. have been subject to the impertinence of the woman who has given some trouble in the Wards during the stay of the children. faithfully yours

Rev. Jas. J. Woodroffe. Thomas Barnsley. Sec I. S. A.

Bartholomew's where the verdict was - no rupture. He is able to attend that Hosp. by going in a cab, (money for same being given by relatives & neighbours) Told the woman we had no funds to provide for the needy; but if he had work to go to after his illness, the C.O.S. would look into his case. Recommended her to bring the man to the Lon. Hosp. & save the cab-money for nourishment. Offered a Lon. Hosp.
