Mr. Howe

A woman from Barking asked Mr. Ames (Sew-) today (Wednesday) to search the Marriage Register for the name of Howe. On discovering the entry it was found that the Clerk of those days had placed 1852 at the head of the entry, & in the first column 1851. - On the same ^{day} 5th Jan^r four other marriages were solemnized, & these were dated 1852. The woman wd not accept a Certificate as it wd. show both dates. I recommended her to apply to the Sup^r Registrar, & see what the duplicate book showed. On Thursday I learned from Mr. Ames that the same woman had applied at our Church about 12 months ago, & that her object in seeking a Certificate was to prove the legitimacy of her husband, & secure a share at the division of Mr. Howe's assets. - Her husband was born in 1851. Our Register, notwithstanding the clerical error, shows that the marriage of his parents took place in 1852, which date would prove illegitimacy. - Some time ^{ago} her brother-in-law (now dead) obtained a certificate of the marriage. - She showed it to Mr. Ames on the first occasion, & he told her it had been tampered with. She admitted that her brother-in-law had changed the figure 1 into the figure 2. She wd. like to prove that her parents-in-law had been married in 1851. I told her we sd. give her an exact copy, & endorse the Certificate to show that the difference in the dates was original, & not due to the person who made the extract. - She paid her shilling, & went away to search the duplicate.
