The OUTing the PAST festival comprises of presentations of LGBT history that have been offered to us from over 60 people that are researching and sharing their knowledge of events and LGBT people hitherto hidden from us. It will take place throughout February and March in prestigious venues throughout England, the island of Ireland & the USA. The gathering of Academics and Activists will be in Belfast on the 21st & 22nd May and represents a chance for LGBT + academics and activists to showcase their work and collaborate with others.
