The Chairman said he would like to congratulate the House Officials, not only of the winning Houses, but also the losers, on the excellent entries & enthusiasm shown in these competitions. For the first time in the House Comp^{ts} each House put a full team of really efficient performers in for the P.T. There were over 50 weighed in for the House Boxing. In addition, it was to be noted that a larger proportion of members subscriptions had been collected by the whips this quarter, than on any previous occasion. These satisfactory results were due almost entirely to the efforts of the Committee. Their job was difficult & often thankless. He hoped that they would maintain the high standard they had reached during the "slack" months of April to September. A. Hearnig appeared for "behaviour" at a House meeting, likely to bring ridicule on the Chairman. Mr Cockrill stated the case against

Deering. After hearing Hearnig's version of the affair & taking into consideration that it was his first offence the Committee decided to severely caution him. Messrs Cockrill McKie Yellon & Liley were elected as a sub committee to handicap the entries for the Armstrong Bellhead prizes. That at 8.30pm tomorrow. Losers to pay 1st per game. Start 7.45pm Saturday next. Anyone not present when names were called to be scratched. Mr Co to run the handicap Nelson, Cockrill & Barnes. The following probationers were admitted — J. G. Darlington C. W. Dunn J. Gibbo J. Smith J. E. Soar E. Vanderweil. The following new members were elected. A. L. Brighton, J. Cowcher C. W. A. Edney E. G. Hardie E. Starman P. Kernot G. W. R. Lawrence, B. R. Lutterlock J. J. Morris A. E. Ridgewell, B. L. E. Russell C. M. Swinmonds C. C. Vincent E. R. Willmer. The Chairman read a letter from J. E. St David's Hall University College Reading re Football Match & indoor games on Saturday 10th April. It was recommended, that as they had to leave the Week about 8.0pm the managers permission be sought to open the club at 6.30pm on that evening. Also that they be invited to bring two elevens senior & junior if possible & a tennis team. It was left to Mr Cooper to make necessary arrangements.

6. Mr McGeir appeared to answer to a charge 'of not properly performing his duty as a Committee man, in that he on 26th January, declined to help Mr Cockrill discover who had been throwing water about in the lavatory. Mr McGeir admitted that he threw it about himself.

It was pointed out to him that it was not only a bad example for younger members, but bad sportsmanship to his colleagues on the Committee. The Chairman suggested that as it was an unpleasant affair between two of themselves, it might be settled there & not entered in the minutes. The Committee however decided to severely caution Mr McGeir & that the caution should be entered.

The meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the Chairman for presiding.
