 Chairman informed him that the next issue was to be a double number; he further said that great efforts had been made to improve "Chin-Wag" & that the Committee were asked to push the sales of the magazine.

Copies would be on sale in the Hall on Saturday 14th inst: at the Desborough Concerts.
 Lusty then suggested that the boys' Club subscriptions be raised to 1/6 & Chin Wag given free to each member. M<sup>rs</sup> Hartley said that the question of altering the subscription to 2<sup>d</sup> a week & include "Chin Wag" & other Club subs, & do away with the monthly subscriptions was being considered.
 He pointed out that owing to the large membership of Eton Manor, it was difficult to find a simple method for collecting subscriptions The Chairman asked when the House Captain's books would be completed; he was informed they would be ready by the new year.

Arrangements for the Desborough Dinner were discussed. Those boys who had earned admission to Desborough Dinner were to have two tickets for friends for the concert. All other members 2 tickets.

Lusty complained that the Committee was frequently interrupted by members coming into the room & suggested a notice be hung on the door to the effect that Committee is sitting. It was decided that this should be done.

charged for each member taking part in order to provide a prize. E. Lusty moved an amendment that the system be introduced & continued until a member went up to the O.P.C. & no fee be charged. This was put to the vote: the amendment was lost & the original proposition was carried.

The Chairman informed the Committee that members must not use the telephone nor receive private calls on it, except in matters of urgency. Much inconvenience had been caused by people ringing members up on trivial matters, late at night.

The Chairman also informed the Committee that out of the Club membership of 382, 183 members had paid no subs & that it was up to the House officials to see that these were paid before the end of the quarter.

C. Hughes reported that articles were continually being taken from the cloak room & proposed that a member be on duty there during the evening; there was no seconder for this. After
