Name of Creator: Women's Co-operative Guild

Extent: 110 boxes, 13 posters & 1 framed photograph

Administrative/Biographical History: The Co-operative Women's Guild was formed in 1883 following the first inclusion of a women's page in "Co-operative News". Its aim was to spread the knowledge of the benefits of co-operation and improve the conditions of women with the slogan "co-operation in poor neighbourhoods".

In 1885 the organisation changed its name to the Women's Co-operative Guild. In 1889 Miss Margaret Llewelyn Davies became General Secretary on a voluntary basis and Miss Lilian Harris was appointed Cashier to the Guild. Under the direction of these two women the organisation expanded rapidly from 51 branches and a membership of 1700 in 1889 to a peak of 1500 branches and a membership of 72000 in 1933. By this time the name of the organisation had again been changed to the Co-operative Women's Guild.

Custodial History: Material arrived at Bishopsgate Institute in the 1980s in the post. The deposit was unsolicited and the reason for sending material to the Institute is unknown.

WCG/5/18-20 'Evergreen Books', deposited with Bishopsgate Institute by Sue Bosanko as part of Sue King's personal archive, 7 February 2017.
